THE CAUSE ARGUED.

The Onslaught on the Quay County Bill is Made. HARRISBURG, June 18.—The contest over the Quay county bill is over now, so far as the Governor is concerned, and now all await in expectancy and hope for the outcome. He may sign the bill but he was given a very good article for a masterly veto to-day in the arguments made by Messrs. Brumm, Guy E. Farquhar and Ulrich who took Schuylkill county's side of the case.

At 12:30 P. M. this afternoon the following persons congregated in the senate chamber and organized by making Hon. C. N. Brumm chairman of the delegation and E. C. Wagner, of Girardville, secretary.

There were in attendance all the Schuylkill Senators and Representatives, except Senator Keefe and Mr. Schrink, the County Commissioners and their solicitor, Bird W. Payne; Banker Weston, D. D. Phillips, E. E. Wagner, James Grant and Mr. Graham, of Shenandoah; Squire Stauffer, of Union; Charles Smith, E. L. Silliman, John W. Phillips, Wm. Carter, Mahanoy City; Daniel Duffy and Kline Morris, St. Clair; George L. Brown, Harrison Keav, James Levan, Charles N. Brumm, Minersville; Samuel A. Loeb, Dr. Charles E. Quail, Auburn; John F. Sweeney, Guy E. Farquhar, Fatima Farquhar, George H. Gerber, C. Shumway and Messrs. Filbert and Miller, of Pinegrove.

This organized the delegation proceeded to the Executive Chamber where, the desks having been cleared of the debris in the cases of the Kennedy Gas bill and the Woods Water bill, arguments in which had occupied the morning hours, the bill was opened on the Quay County bill, pro and con. The executive chamber was packed with advocates and opponents of the bill, including many of the most prominent citizens in Schuylkill and Luzerne counties. George R. Bedford, of Wilkes-Barre, opened the debate against the bill. He declared it was unconstitutional on the ground that the Judges of Luzerne county as specified in the bill could not have the power to sit in judgment on the election to be held for the creation of the new county.

A. Farnham, of Wilkes-Barre, followed, and intimated that the bill would not now be before him had it not been for Senator Quay's interference. He was of the opinion that the bill was local and special, making it obnoxious to the spirit and letter of the Constitution. The Schuylkill county opponents asked the privilege, which was granted, of speaking after the supporters of the measure had been heard.

George H. Troutman, of Hazleton, made a strong speech for the bill, and was followed by ex-Judge Harding, of Luzerne, and ex-Judge Kirkpatrick, of Easton, the latter vouching particularly for the constitutionality of the measure. Lyman D. Gilbert, Esq., of Harrisburg, followed for the bill, taking up the line that it was not for the Governor to prevent the voting population of the proposed new district from deciding for themselves as to their desire for a county government of their own.

At this point the proceedings were interrupted by Mr. Sweeney, the late Hon. Eckley B. Cox's man, presenting a petition, or memorial, against the new county, signed by 400 citizens of Hazle township, Luzerne county. He made a few remarks in support of those citizens' attitude against the new county.

Then Mr. Brumm took the floor and put Schuylkill county's side before the Executive. His speech was exhaustive and he insinuatingly and bluntly buried some remarks at the hidden forces who were behind the marionettes who had the bill passed.

Guy E. Farquhar, Esq., followed Mr. Brumm, dwelling on the growth of Schuylkill county to the present great importance it had attained and the injustice of dismembering it. Following Mr. Farquhar came County Solicitor Ulrich who presented a very lengthy brief of argument against the constitutionality of the proposed law.

After the Quay County bill hearing was one on the Kellogg-Garb bill, J. W. Pike, of Philadelphia, Secretary of the Legislative Committee of the J. O. U. A. M., appeared for the bill. Representative Seyfert, of Lancaster, opposed the measure and the Governor's remarks during the argument indicated a purpose to veto the bill. As the Governor will be out of the city during the remainder of the week no further hearing will be held on bills.

The commission of Austin C. Sherman, of the Fourth ward of Mahanoy City, was directed to be issued to-day by the Governor. Last night Messrs. D. D. Phillips and William E. Jones, of Schuylkill county, came here and satisfied the Governor that it was the proper thing to do, to give Mr. Sherman his commission. He was re-elected last February, but neglected to send notice here of his acceptance and then made an effort to be appointed. To this he was opposed by the Senator from the 30th district, who held the rod of disapproval over him until the Governor at last cast it aside. So-called Senatorial courtesy kept the Governor from acting during the session of the Senate. That body having adjourned he was indeed to appoint Squire Sherman and commission him.

When Ponce-de-Leon sought to find the fountain giving back lost youth, it may be that he had in mind That draught which seems to make a truth. Out of the fable ages old, For drinking it the old grow young. It is, indeed, a draught of gold, Surpassing all by poets sung. The draught meant is Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, of course. It is a most potent rejuvenator of the weakened and debilitated system. It drives out all poison, all impurity, enriches the blood, and makes the old and worn out feel young and vigorous. Ponce-de-Leon did not discover it, but Dr. Pierce did, and he rightly named it when he called it a "Golden Discovery."
